

WAYS PARENTS CAN HELP

Parent and community interest and participation is a vital part of every successful troop. Listed below are some definite ways in which parents or other supportive adults might help with a Girl Scout troop. Check ways you can help!

- Share special skills and knowledge with girls when needed. List talents, hobbies, etc. _____
- Help with telephone calls to girls and/or parents.
- Help with troop registration forms, paperwork or record keeping.
- Arrange for or provide transportation for field trips or special troop activities
Type of vehicle: Car_____ Station Wagon _____ Van_____
Pickup (for hauling equipment, supplies, etc)_____ Number of passengers:_____
- Provide extra adult assistance on trips and outings or special projects
Special interest areas: Hikes_____ Cookouts_____ Camping_____ Field trips_____
Trips for several days_____ Day trips_____ Money earning projects_____
Are you willing to take training, if needed? Yes_____ No_____
- Coordinate troop cookie sale. (Membership registration required).
- Coordinate troop meeting refreshments by arranging for or providing refreshments.
- Promote and coordinate troop parent contributions to Family Partnership Campaign.
- Serve as an assistant leader, planning and carrying out activities regularly with girls, the troop leader, and other assistant leaders. (Membership registration required)
- Care for leaders' younger children during meetings or when leaders take training.
- Lend a kitchen, den, or backyard for an occasional meeting.
- Help write, type or distribute a regular troop newsletter for other parent/guardians and support adults
- Serve as troop first aider. (Must be currently certified.)
List qualification/certifications_____